

What's new, what's happening

Tops of the week

There'll be much music being made in the Philadelphia area this week. At the Academy of Music at 8 p.m. tomorrow, pianist Lance Mark Wiseman of Wyncote will be playing a challenging variety of classical pieces. At the Valley Forge Music Fair, Helen Forrest will be only one of the performers opening Tuesday in "Big Broadcast of 1944," a variety show in the style of hit radio programs of the '40s.
